The festival of “Basant Panchmi” is celebrated on the fifth day (Panchami) of the Hindu month of Magha. It is an occasion which marks the advent of the spring season and is also celebrated to worship Saraswati, the Goddess of knowledge and wisdom. The junior students of G.D. Goenka Public School, Sarita Vihar celebrated the day with great zeal and enthusiasm.

A special virtual assembly was presented by the youngest students of Nursery ‘A’ who started the day by invoking the blessings of Goddess Saraswati. They educated everyone about the significance of the colour ‘Yellow’ and told the different ways in which the festival is celebrated across the country.

To celebrate the day in the virtual classrooms, different activities were organized in the classes. The students and the teachers were dressed in yellow coloured attires. Children were explained the importance of the day and its association with the yellow colour, the blooming of mustard flowers and the arrival of spring were also elaborated.

The students of Nursery enjoyed a card making activity in which they painted a lotus flower and decorated the musical instrument of Goddess Saraswati, Veena. The students of kindergarten and class 1 made a sunflower painting using a fork and tea leaves. A parent of Class 1 took an initiative and showed the pooja pandal decorated in her house. Students of class 2 made a card to celebrate the day.

The school Principal, Mrs. Seema Sahay and Headmistress, Ms. Vinita Sachdeva conveyed special wishes to the students and the parents on the auspicious occasion.
