Annual School Picnic

A day picnic for classes Nursery to class 2 was organized on March 16, 2016. The venue for the picnic was the Children's Park at the Jasola Sports Complex, Jasola, New Delhi. The students reached the park by school buses and spent the day enjoying the swings and rides. They also participated in the various games, which were especially organized for them by their teachers at the venue, followed by eating and sharing their lunch with their classmates and teachers. The students were also told the importance keeping the surroundings and the venue clean by not littering around. They were encouraged to throw all wrappers and used packets into the garbage bags provide at the spot. The students were accompanied by their teachers and the support staff. The happy smiles on the students' faces were a proof of the fun filled day spent at the Children's park.
