Event Report

“It is spring again. The earth is like a child that knows poems by heart.”

- Rainer Maria Rilke

GD Goenka Public School, Sarita Vihar witnessed a very colourful and vibrant Basant Panchami celebration on January 29, 2020. “Basant Panchmi” is an occasion which marks the advent of the spring season and is also celebrated to worship Saraswati, the Goddess of knowledge and wisdom.

A special assembly was presented by the students of Nursery who came dressed in the vibrant and bright colours of spring. The celebration started with a beautiful Saraswati vandana in which they offered prayers invoking the blessings of Goddess Saraswati seeking knowledge and a prosperous life. The students were informed about the importance of the festival and the relevance of yellow colour on the day.

This was followed by a skit and dance performance in which children displayed the arrival of spring and the happiness it brings in animal kingdom after the long winter year. The tiny tots of preprimary also enjoyed a craft activity during which they made creative and tastefully embellished head bands with origami paper flowers.

All students also offered prayer to the idol of goddess Saraswati which was decorated in the stilt area. The school Principal ,Ms Seema Sahay offered prayers and prasad to the idol and addressed all.
