

G.D GOENKA PUBLIC SCHOOL, SARITA VIHAR

LITERARY WEEK

THEME: Literary Week

REPORT: Literary Week

DATE: July 15 to July 20, 2019

CLASSES: Nursery to II

EVENT REPORT

“Language is to the mind more than light is to the eye”

Literature opens the door of imagination and allows an individual to observe the surroundings with different perspectives. To bring the Goenkan closer to the English language, G.D. Goenka Public School, Sarita Vihar held a Literary Week for classes Nursery to II. The week was celebrated from July 15 to July 20, 2019 and comprised a plethora of activities to support the curious minds and hone the creative skills. The week comprised a series of literary activities by various classes.

Day1-Think and Ink: The day was celebrated as a day of creative writing where the students of class II were shown a picture on cleanliness and asked to think and pen down their thoughts.

Day 2-Character Parade: Stories are loved by all and so are their characters. The Goenkans from Nursery paraded in their favourite character’s costume from the Panchtantra and Aesops Fables and spoke a few lines about them.

Day 3-Read and Tell: The students of grade I were encouraged to read a short story and were asked narrate the same in their own words. This activity strengthened their comprehension skills and expression.

Day 4-Book Mark Making: The class teachers of Kindergarten narrated a story to the students and encouraged students to draw and sketch their impressions of the same through the characters to make their own book marks. This activity strengthened the listening skills and expression of the students.

Day 5- Share-a-Book: The students were encouraged to participate in ‘Share-a-book’ an initiative taken by the school, to contribute a book to the collection of story books for the class library. They were also encouraged to share a book and read. The time allotted was named as DEAR Time that is Drop Everything and Read.

Glimpses of the Literary Week

