

Report: Inter-House Science Experiments Competition

Classes: III-V

Date: July 17, 2026

Day: Friday

EVENT REPORT

The Inter-House Science Experiments Competition was organised for the students of classes III to V to celebrate the science week. The competition was held to encourage scientific curiosity, creativity, innovation, and practical learning. The competition provided students with an opportunity to demonstrate their understanding of scientific concepts through interesting and engaging experiments.

Students from the different houses participated enthusiastically and demonstrated interesting experiments based on scientific principles. They explained the concepts, procedures, observations, and applications of their experiments with confidence and clarity. The event encouraged students to think critically, work collaboratively, and apply their classroom learning to real-life situations.

The participants displayed remarkable enthusiasm, creativity, and scientific temperament. The competition was a valuable learning experience that promoted experiential learning and the spirit of healthy competition among the students.

The event provided students with an opportunity to move beyond textbook learning and understand scientific concepts through hands-on experiences. The participants displayed excellent teamwork, creativity, observation skills, and problem-solving abilities while conducting their experiments.

The students also demonstrated how science is closely connected to our everyday lives. Their presentations reflected their ability to question, explore, investigate, and draw conclusions based on their observations. The event encouraged them to adopt a scientific approach and develop a deeper interest in the world around them.

The competition was not only a platform for showcasing talent but also a valuable learning experience that promoted collaboration, confidence, innovation, and healthy competition. It successfully fostered a spirit of inquiry and encouraged students to explore the fascinating world of science through experimentation and discovery.
