EVENT REPORT

On 4th May 2026, the students of Class XI conducted a morning assembly distinguished by its thoughtfulness, creativity, and social relevance. Anchored in the school's Value of the Month — Harmonious — the assembly was dedicated to the occasion of Labour Day and highlighted the spirit of dignity, gratitude, and collective responsibility towards every individual who contributes selflessly to society. Integrating the essence of the school's Community Outreach Programme, the presentation served as a meaningful tribute to the tireless efforts of workers whose dedication forms the backbone of everyday life. Far beyond a routine assembly, the programme unfolded as a harmonious blend of cultural performances, reflective narratives, and heartfelt expressions of appreciation, inspiring students, teachers, and school leadership alike to recognise the value of empathy, unity, and mutual respect in building a compassionate society.

ASSEMBLY HIGHLIGHTS

1. Opening Rituals

The assembly commenced with an atmosphere of quiet reverence and reflection through a soulful morning prayer that encouraged the school community to embrace harmony, gratitude, and compassion in everyday life. On the occasion of Labour Day, the prayer also served as a reminder to value the dignity of labour and acknowledge the unwavering contributions of workers who support and strengthen society. This was followed by an inspiring thought for the day, thoughtfully chosen to reinforce the importance of unity, empathy, and collective responsibility, thereby setting a meaningful and purposeful tone for the proceedings that followed.

2. News Bulletin

A well-curated and confidently delivered news bulletin was presented by a team of student anchors, covering significant national and international events, weather updates, school highlights, and achievements from the world of sports. The segment effectively underscored the assembly's central message of harmony and social awareness, reminding the audience that an informed and empathetic society is built upon awareness, understanding, and collective responsibility towards the world around us.

3. Thought of the day and the poem

The “Thought of the Day” and the poem presentation beautifully reflected the theme of harmony while also paying tribute to the spirit of Labour Day. Through inspiring words and expressive verses, the students highlighted the importance of unity, empathy, mutual respect, and gratitude towards the hardworking individuals whose efforts contribute significantly to society. The presentation encouraged everyone to value dignity of labour and foster harmonious relationships, leaving the audience with a meaningful message of togetherness, compassion, and collective responsibility.

4. DRAMATIC SKIT: “THE INVISIBLE HARMONY”

The students presented a thoughtful and impactful skit based on the occasion of Labour Day and the theme of the month — Harmony. Through realistic performances and meaningful dialogues, the play highlighted the often-overlooked contributions of the school's supporting staff and emphasised the importance of treating every individual with dignity, gratitude, and respect. The enactment beautifully conveyed that harmony in society is achieved when empathy, mindfulness, and mutual appreciation become part of everyday life. The powerful message and heartfelt performances left a lasting impression on the audience and inspired everyone to acknowledge the silent efforts of those who help create a positive and harmonious environment each day.

Community Outreach Programme – Labour Day Felicitation of Support Staff

As a part of the Community Outreach Programme and in celebration of Labour Day, the students organised a heartfelt felicitation ceremony to honour the school's supporting staff for their unwavering dedication and invaluable contributions to the school community. The students expressed their gratitude and appreciation by presenting chocolates, handmade cards, and beautifully prepared carry bags adorned with “Thank You” tags. The gesture, filled with warmth, respect, and affection, reflected the true spirit of harmony and empathy. The programme served as a meaningful reminder of the importance of acknowledging the silent efforts of those who work tirelessly behind the scenes to ensure a positive and nurturing school environment.
