GD Goenka Public School, Sarita Vihar, hosts orientation programme for new parents

GD Goenka Public School, Sarita Vihar, began the academic session 2025-26 with an orientation programme to welcome new parents.

School principal Seema Sahay extended a warm greeting, emphasising the school's commitment to nurturing and preparing students for the future.

Junior-wing headmistress Vinita Sachdeva highlighted the school's dynamic learning environment and its role in shaping successful individuals. Senior-wing headmistress Vibhu Gupta provided insights into the functioning of the primary, middle, and senior wings, as well as subject choices available in Class 12.

Parents were introduced to the school's systems, facilities, and infrastructure designed to foster confident and self-reliant students. The session provided an overview of the school's motto - 'Higher, Stronger, Brighier,' and its student-centric initiatives. Parents got to know about the holistic learning approach, which integrates academics, competitions, and psychosocial development. The blended learning strategy and value-adding events were highlighted as key aspects of student development. The focus on higher-order thinking skills and interpersonal growth was emphasised through various school programmes.

School counsellor Urvashi Sareen assured parents of their children's well-being and the importance of proper guidance. Junior-wing coordinator Farah Aqueel introduced faculty members and their dedication to shaping young minds. The nurturing environment of the school, centered around knowledge and wisdom, was reiterated. Parents gained a deeper understanding of the school's efforts in guiding students towards a bright future. The event concluded on a promising note, reaffirming the school's commitment to holistic education.
