GD Goenka Public School, Sarita Vihar, celebrates Appreciation Day with zeal

NEW DELHI: GD Goenka Public School, Sarita Vihar, celebrated its Appreciation Day for the academic session 2025-26, celebrating the achievements of students and reinforcing its commitment to nurturing excellence, perseverance, and holistic growth.

The event brought together students, parents, teachers, and school leaders to recognise outstanding accomplishments across academics, sports, and the creative and performing arts. Guided by the school's philosophy, 'Thrive. For Life.', the celebration highlighted the importance of acknowledging effort and achievement as key drivers of future success.

A major highlight of the occasion was the presentation of academic recognition awards.

Students were honoured under categories such as Class 12 Board Toppers, Scholar's Awards, Roll of Honour Awards, and Merit Awards, recognising not only high academic performance but also dedication, discipline, and resilience.

The event also showcased the school's strong performance in the CBSE board examinations 2025-26. Class 12 students achieved a highest aggregate of 95% in the science stream, while perfect scores of 100 were secured in biology, psychology, and typography.

In Class 10 the highest aggregate stood at 94.8%, with several students scoring above 94%.

Appreciation Day reflected the school's mission to inspire students to dream big, work hard, and strive for excellence while developing the confidence and values needed to thrive throughout life.
