Hindustan

Times

FIRST VOICE. LAST WORD.

GD Goenka Public School, Sarita Vihar, celebrates annual literary festival with zeal

GD Goenka Public School, Sarita Vihar, celebrated its annual literary festival titled 'Goenkan Literazzi: The Celebration of Language and Literature' with great fervour.

The event was graced by visionary leaders, including chairman Vipul Garg, secretary Madan Lal, mentor TR Garg, and esteemed member of the management, Shruti Garg, with distinguished figures from literature and media serving as event judges.

The unique festival, crafted by the school to inspire students' intellectual growth, aims to mould them into cultured and inquisitive individuals through a blend of performances, creative ideas, and dialogues.

This year's fest 'ByteScribes' centered around an enthralling theme 'Artificial Intelligence: Merging Creativity with Technology.' Students engaged in events like My AI Amigo (poetry), Dual Dynamics (scene enactment), Innovate AI (pitch fest), The AI Chronicles (comic strip design), and Battle of Words (debate).

Poetic recitations examined AI's effect on human emotions while skits

Twenty-two schools from Delhi-NCR participated in the literary festival with great enthusiasm humorously depicted robots and automation. Comic strips illustrated imaginative futures, and passionate debates explored AI's advantages and challenges.

Twenty-two schools from Delhi-NCR participated in the event, bringing vibrancy and enthusiasm to this intellectual exchange.

The host school won the Rolling Trophy, but being the host school, the trophy was given to Eicher School Faridabad.

The school's founding principal, Seema Sahay, shared her inspirational words with the audience, and expressed gratitude for the gathering, making the fest an unforgettable success.