GD Goenka Public School, Sarita Vihar, celebrates its annual day function

NEW DELHI: GD Goenka Public School, Sarita Vihar, celebrated its annual day function at Air Force Auditorium, Subroto Park, with a spectacular presentation of The Chronicles of Narnia, showcasing the talent, creativity and confidence of its students.

The highlight of the function was a grand theatrical production

The morning commenced with the ceremonial lamp lighting, followed by a captivating live orchestra and soulful musical performance.

The occasion was graced by mentor TR Garg, chairman Vipul Garg and Sumati Garg, secretary Madan Lal, management members Shruti Garg and Sachin Garg, and special guest Vandana Gupta, principal of GD Goenka School, Rohini, Sector 22.

A delightful welcome song by the pre-primary students set the tone, followed by Shruti Garg's address, reaffirming the school's commitment to holistic education. Principal Seema Sahay presented the annual report, highlighting the school's remarkable achievements, including prestigious school awards, RIDS recognition by the British Council, and students' outstanding accomplishments at international, national and inter-school platforms.

The highlight of the day was the grand theatrical production, The Chronicles of Narnia, which brought C.S. Lewis's timeless tale to life, earned a standing ovation from the audience.
