Baisakhi Report

Baisakhi, the harvest festival was marked as a special day at G.D. Goenka Public School, Sarita Vihar.

Through a special assembly the tiny tots discussed the importance of crops, their growth and harvesting. A PowerPoint presentation threw light upon delicious delicacies like khichdi and halwa, the super powerful dance form; bhangra and everything pertaining to Baisakhi. The little ones from kindergarten also danced to a foot tapping Bhangra number and brightened everyone's day.

The Primary Incharge, Mrs. Vinita Sachdeva concluded the assembly while briefing the students about Baisakhi's essence. The students of Nursery and KG also made special Baisakhi crafts symbolizing the beauty of infinite growth.

The vibrant festival of Baisakhi was thus acclaimed for its agricultural importance and celebrated as an auspicious day.
