As a part of the school's outreach programme, the Goenkans collaborated with The Cheshire Home Delhi Unit to put a stall for display and purchase, where in all the parents, students and teachers were encouraged to contribute towards a better life for the inmates of the organization by purchasing the innovative and unique merchandise from the stall.

The display included beautiful jute bags, stationery items like dairies, planners, envelopes etc. all prepared by the inmates of the Cheshire Home who may be limited in their physical and mental capacities but not in spirits, their creative work attracted several eyes, who stopped by to view and purchase the merchandise.

This initiative was well received by the parents who appreciated the thought behind the effort and respected the fact that the children are being sensitized towards the noble cause of helping the not so privileged of the society.
